A Reflective Sentence

God whispers in our joys; he speaks in our conscience. But in our sorrows he shouts. They are the megaphone with which he awakens a deaf world. ....Clive Staples CS Lewis (1898-1963 author of the Chronicles of Narnia)

Feast of the Epiphany

The story of the Magi, the wise men, represent all of our stories insofar as their journey through desert and mountain following a star reflects our search for purpose and meaning in life – a search which is not complete unless we are guided by faith which enables us to see beneath the surface of appearances - a faith which gives us the strength in tough times but hopefully that deep down joy as we journey through life.

At the centre of this journey is the innocence of a new born child, surrounded by adoration, wonder and mystery, who is able to stir the emotions, imaginations and wills of all those drawn into his presence. There are many routes to God, but only one light. The Magi and the shepherds found their way to the stable by quite different paths but by following the same star. The Epiphany is always relevant because God sees to it that people who really search WILL find him. He will shed light into our darkness and make us new. As the Lord said, "ask and you will be given, seek and you shall find, knock and the door will be opened to you". As the Christmas season draws to a close the Epiphany remind us of our journeying into another year following our individual paths, but reminding us that we need not travel alone, fumbling in the darkness in search of our destination. The Epiphany story calls on us to look around and search for the Lord who is in our midst, in situations where previously we were unaware of his presence. He comes in people and places we least expect and at times when we are most unprepared for his company. God stands in our midst revealing himself and inviting us to enter his company. Nothing is ever the same again for those who have discovered his light.

The Magi came bearing gifts-strange gifts. I came across a thoughtful reflection on these gifts in a book called 'Hallowing the Time' by Fr. Geoffrey Preston. He suggests that "the gifts represent all the questions posed by a non-believing world: gold, the currency of politics, economics and commerce, frankincense, the material of worship, signifies man's questions about the divine; and myrrh, the ointment of death, 'the supreme question mark set against all the activities of man'. Thus man's searching is laid at the manger, wherein lies the answer, the 'way, the truth and the life'". (Reflections for Christmas by Delia Smith)

We can be sure that the wise men were utterly changed after meeting the child Jesus and they brought that change with them as they went home. In seeing Jesus they saw the divine light which no doubt guided the rest of their lives and today we ask and pray for that divine light to guide and influence our own lives as we begin this year of Our Lord 2023.

A New Years Blessing

Lord, at the beginning of this New Year, we thank you for your gift of time. Let us embrace time as Mary did, as the experience of the unfolding of your plan of salvation. We measure time with calendars and watches.

You experience it as an ever present 'now'.

Bless our ordered lists of weeks and months, of holydays and holidays, of feasts and fasts, and all our special days of remembering.

Please bless these instruments with which we measure time. Let them remind us that you are the master of time as we dedicate this New Year to you. Lord bless this New Year, each of its days and nights. Bless us with happy seasons and healthy lives.

Lord, we thank you for the gift of 2023. Grant that it will be a year of love and peace. Amen.

In The Gospel

When the shepherds find the baby in the manger, they repeat what the angels said - he is the Messiah! Mary thinks deeply about all they say. Jesus is a very, very special baby.

Maze!

The shepherds ran to Bethlehem to find Jesus. Can you help them find him?

MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD!

Help me, Jesus, to just get on with doing what you ask. Help me to be loving and kind with everyone I meet. I know you will be with me and you will help me. Amen.

Thank you, God!

The shepherds were very excited when they had seen Jesus. They went away praising God. What wonderful things can you praise and thank God for? Here are some ideas for you to colour. Can you add your own ideas?

What is Mary's treasure?

Mary treasured all things the shepherds said. When we treasure something we look after it and keep it safe. We know the things that we treasure are special. Mary pondered all these things in her heart. When we "ponder" something we think deeply about it.

Can you find out what Mary treasured in her heart?
