FROM THE PASTORS DESK

Sunday of the Word of God – 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

In his Apostolic Letter of 30 September 2019, Aperuit illis Pope Francis established that the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be the Sunday of the Word of God. He already proposed something similar at the end of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy. It is a day to be devoted to the celebration, study, and spreading of the Word of God. Pope Francis is clear from the very first paragraph of this letter that the relationship between the Risen Lord, a community of believers, and sacred Scripture is essential to who we are as Christians.

What is the Word of God?

We often identify the Bible as the Word of God. This is not wrong, but God speaks to our hearts in many different ways. For instance, he speaks to us in prayer and through our conscience, and often through other people. Hence, the Word of God covers much more than a printed book. Nevertheless, the Bible is the privileged collection of communications between God and his people. These stories and poems have nourished the lives of the people of Israel and the Christian Church right through the centuries, and they continue to nourish us today. They tell the story of God's love and our salvation from ancient times onwards. The scriptural texts offer us both challenge and encouragement for our lives, and are especially valuable to us through the hope they offer us at dark moments.

Pope Francis' Prayer to: MARY – Woman of Listening

Mary, woman of listening, open our ears; grant us to know how to listen to the word of your Son Jesus among the thousands of words of this world; grant that we may listen to the reality in which we live, to every person we encounter, especially those who are poor, in need, in hardship.

Mary, woman of decision, illuminate our mind and our heart, so that we may obey, unhesitating, the word of your Son Jesus; give us the courage to decide, not to let ourselves be dragged along, letting others direct our life.

Mary, woman of action, obtain that our hands and feet move "with haste" toward others, to bring them the charity and love of your Son Jesus, to bring the light of the Gospel to the world, as you did.

Amen.

Parish Assembly

One of the outcomes of the Parish Assembly held prior to Covid was the recognition that more Volunteers are needed if St. Brigid's Blanchardstown is to effectively carry out its mission of preaching/building the Kingdom Of God in our Parish and beyond. To that end members of The Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) will speak at all Masses this weekend about the need for Volunteers and if the Spirit moves you, you can volunteer your name the following Sunday.

"There is a variety of gifts, but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose" (1 Cor 12: 4-7)

Week of Christian Unity-2022 - Concludes

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity concludes this Tuesday 25th January on the Feast of the Conversion of St Paul. The week is a privileged moment of prayer, encounter and dialogue. It is an opportunity to recognise and receive the richness and value that are present in the other, the different, and to ask God for the gift of unity. Pope Francis in his Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) writes: "The immense numbers of people who have not received the Gospel of Jesus Christ cannot leave us indifferent. Consequently, commitment to a unity which helps them to accept Jesus Christ can no longer be a matter of mere diplomacy or forced compliance, but rather an indispensable path to evangelisation" (E.G 246) Fr Michael Carey PP

Spiritual Reading Circle with Fr Frank Our next spiritual reading circle will commence on Thursday, the 27th of January at 7:30 pm. In weekly Zoom meetings we will collect and discuss the results of our reading. Our reading material will be: Richard Rohr, The Universal Christ: How a Forgotten Reality Can Change Everything We See, Hope For and Believe, London 2019, ca. € 10.00. Registrations, by 26th January, to Mairin.Keegan@dublindiocese.ie It would be good if all participants had read pages 1-37 in the book for our first session, so we can get straight into our very interesting topic.

While baskets are not being circulated, donations to the Sunday Mass Collections can be placed in the envelopes throughout the church (and left in the baskets on the way out), or by using the new 'Tap & Go' facility - signs guide you through 3 easy steps. Donations will be split—60% to the 1st Collection (Common Fund for priests) 40% to the 2nd collection (Share). Many thanks for your generous support.

We are anointed

I was anointed when I was baptised. That means I am like Jesus. I can share his work. Tick what you will do this week to bring good news to someone.

 Chloe

In the Gospel Jesus comes to the synagogue in his hometown and begins to read from the scroll. He reads God's promise that the anointed Messiah will bring good news and freedom to everyone, especially people who are poor or suffering. Then Jesus tells everyone that he is the promised Messiah!

A prayer to say What great news, Jesus! You are God's promise for us! Help me to spread the good news of God's promise by the loving things I do and say today. Amen.
