Prayer of Consecration

Lord Jesus Christ,
Son of the Living God, Saviour of the world, Gathered together in Your Name, we consecrate to your Most Sacred Heart: ourselves, our home, our family, our parish, and Ireland our country. We are in great need of your love and protection. You have invited us to come to you, especially those who are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and you have asked us to remain in your love. We turn to you today, from the depths of our hearts.
Most Sacred Heart of Jesus we place all our trust in you.

We desire to be close to your beating heart which is on fire with the Holy Spirit, and is burning with love for us.

We weep to see your wounded heart, crowned with thorns and pierced through on the cross for our sake.

We find comfort in your forgiving heart which lights the way to the home of our merciful Father, who loved us first.

We draw life from your compassionate heart from which flowed blood and water - the wellspring of the sacraments, of grace in the Church and the source of eternal life.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, nourish our lives with your Word, with the strength of the sacraments, and especially with your Body and Blood in the Eucharist - the sacrament of love.

Carry us in your heart. May each of our names be written on your heart, engraved in letters of love.

Have mercy on our suffering world in which you chose to dwell as one of us. Pour out the treasures of your light and love so that our world may regain the most important and necessary thing of all: its heart.

We believe that the world can change, beginning with hearts that are close to your heart.

Be alive and at work in us so that we may radiate faith, hope and love especially for the poor, the suffering and those who are most in need ...

May your Sacred Heart continue to pour forth the streams of living water that can heal the hurt we have caused, strengthen our ability to love and serve others, and inspire us to journey together towards a peaceful, just, and fraternal world.

Lord Jesus Christ, King of love and Prince of peace, reign in our hearts, our homes and in Ireland, our country. Conquer all the powers of evil and bring us to share in the victory of your Sacred Heart.

May all we say and do give glory and praise to you and to the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, living and reigning for ever and ever. Amen.

O Jesus through the most pure heart of Mary we offer you all the prayers, works, joy and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart. O Jesus, meek and humble of heart, transform our hearts to be like yours. Amen

A Sad Goodbye

This weekend is our Deacon Jim Adams last weekend with us before he moves to his new parish in Finglas.

Jim has been an inspirational member of the parish team since he joined. With his uplifting yet pragmatic homilies, his unstinting support and his quiet humour, he has been a valued addition to the parish and will be sadly missed. We thank him for his much appreciated contribution to the parish over the past number of years and wish him every blessing in his new appointment. Goodbye Jim and Good Luck.
