A New Year's Blessing

Lord, at the beginning of this New Year, we thank you for your gift of time. Let us embrace time as Mary did, as the experience of the unfolding of your plan of salvation. We measure time with calendars and watches.

You experience it as an ever-present "now."

Bless our ordered lists of weeks and months, of holydays and holidays, of feast and fasts, and all our special days of remembering.

Please bless these instruments with which we measure time.

Let them remind us that you are the master of time as we dedicate this New Year to you. Lord, bless this New Year, each of its days and nights.

Bless us with happy seasons and healthy lives.

Lord, we thank you for the gift of 2026. Grant that it will be a year of love and peace.

Amen

New Year's Resolutions

New Year's resolutions are too often made simply as fodder for jokes with the assumption that they won't last.

Our celebration of the Christmas Mystery, however, asks of us a response that is more than a half-hearted resolution. We cannot afford to take lightly our encounter with this mystery and its power to make a real difference to how we live. After their marvellous encounter with the newborn Saviour lying in a manger, the shepherds returned to the ordinariness of their lives. Yet they were not the same. These scruffy shepherds had become messengers of the in-breaking of God's salvation.

When we come to the end of this year's celebration of the Christmas mystery, we will return to the ordinariness of our lives. How will we have been changed? What message will we proclaim to others during the rest of the year?

CHILDREN'S CORNER: in the Gospel today....

The Holy Family are in danger from King Herod, but God sends an angel to warn Joseph. They leave in the middle of night and escape to Egypt.

Refugees

Sometimes people today have to leave their homes in a hurry because they are not safe. They are called refugees. Refugees need the same things Jesus did. Can you find some of the things refugees need in the word search?

Message for World Day of Peace 2026

"Peace be with you all. Towards an unarmed and disarming peace" is the theme of Pope Leo XIV's Message for the World Day of Peace 2026 which will be celebrated on January 1, 2026. The Holy Father invites everyone to welcome peace and become witnesses to it because it "exists; it wants to dwell within us."
