Saints in the Church's calendar:

Monday 6th July—St Maria Goretti's feast day was inserted in the General Roman Calendar when it was revised in 1969. She is the patroness saint of chastity, rape victims, girls, youth, teenage girls, poverty, purity, and forgiveness.

Tuesday 7th July—St Maelruain, bishop and abbot, founded the monastery of Tallaght in 774 which introduced a reform.

Wednesday 8th July—St Kilian, born in the parish of Mullagh in Kilmore. With 11 others he left Ireland, they set sail on their mission in a hide-covered boat. Their journey finally brought them to Rome where Pope Conan directed them to Germany and to the province of Franconia, where they set up their head quarters at Wurzburg in the year 686.

CHILDREN'S CORNER.... IN THE GOSPEL TODAY....

COME TO ME!

Jesus tells us we don't need to be clever to know that God loves us. Jesus wants to help anyone who feels weighed down with troubles to come to him. He will give everyone rest.

God's burden

Here is someone carrying God's yoke. Look how happy she is. What is she carrying? Replace the numbers with letters to find out what God has given her to carry. When she takes these things to others she is doing God's work.
